WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE.

Mrs. Cressler Entertains at Shower

Mrs. O. H. Cressler entertained at a prettily appointed apron shower for Miss Irma Huffman Saturday afternoon. Seven tables were placed for cards, and following the games a two-course luncheon was served. While the guests were still seated at the tables, Mrs. Franklin Koch, presiding as toastmistress, called upon Mrs. Redfield, Mrs. Gilfoyl, Mrs. Clabaugh and Miss Waltemath who responded with appropriate toasts to the bride, and Miss Neva Trexler, garbed as a gipsy fortune teller, depicted her future. The decorations were in pink and lavender. The afternoon proved delightful to the thirty ladies present.

Bank Deposits are Heavy

Deposits in the North Platte banks as shown by the statements called for this month aggregate in round numbers two million eight hundred thousand dollars. To this can be added nearly a half million dollars on deposit with the building and loan association in the shape of paid-up stock, making the total deposits in the five institutions somewhat in excess of three and one-quarter million dollars.

This indicates the prosperity of our people, and in these deposits the wage earner shares with the business man and farmer.

Joint Meeting of R. R. Orders.
